Buffalo March 20. 1849

Dear Sir

I omitted to write you for several weeks past in hopes that I might realize something by the way of collections in this vicinity, but in that, have been disappointed, and would not at this time call on you if necessity did not compel me. I must beg your assistance as I am under heavy obligations and shall find considerable difficulty in raising funds to meet them by the 1st May next. Your compliance will very much oblige your friend by sending me a draft for the amount due on your Note. My best respects to your family and believe me Sir

Yours Truly

Robert McPherson
